∴ ∴ and QUEBEC ∴ ∴

NOVEMBER 10, 11, 12, 1911

To be held in BELLEVILLE, Ont.

F5012.1911.M592

OBJECTS

The objects of the conference are to make the Missionary Propaganda large enough to attract the interest of all classes of college students; to encourage the study of missions more especially in relation to the political, economic and social movements of the non-civilized countries; to open up and prepare for new lines of missionary work to be carried on in the various institutions.

PLACE

The city of Belleville which has been chosen as the meeting place for this year's conference is most centrally located among the colleges of Ontario and Quebec and is the site of Albert College.

The sessions will be held in the Bridge Street Methodist Church. Its auditorium and smaller rooms will accommodate both general and special sessions. The general meetings will be open to the public.

TIME

The conference will begin Friday evening, November 10th, and close on Sunday evening, November 12th, 1911.

IMPORTANCE of CONFERENCE

Two years ago a number of students from Canadian institutions had the privilege of attending the quadrennial Student Volunteer Convention in Rochester, N.Y. Last year there was held at Guelph a conference whose purpose was to convey the privileges of Rochester to the general student body of Ontario. Such a conference is to be made an annual event. Belleville is the site chosen for that of this year and is so located as to permit of the attendance of representatives from Quebec. The conference offers a more definite training in mission study and finance than is possible at a large gathering. The combination afforded of technical training and missionary inspiration renders attendance a very great privilege.
